Lesson 4, Come

Sam Follows Wendy

Wendy had a little brother named Sam. Sam loved Wendy and Wendy loved Sam. When Sam was a little baby Wendy would help her mother take care of him. She would rock him to sleep, feed him, and play his favorite games like “Peek a Boo” and “Hide and Seek”.

When Sam grew up, so did Wendy. Things began to change. Wendy had other things she wanted to do and she wanted to play with her own friends. This made Sam sad. But whenever Wendy was home he would follow her everywhere.

He would follow her into the bathroom.

He would follow her to her bedroom.

He would follow her to the kitchen and he would follow her and watch TV with her.

Everywhere Wendy went Sam was close behind her. Everything Wendy did Sam did too.

He ate the same foods that Wendy did. Sam said the same words that Wendy did. Sam brushed his teeth the same way Wendy did.

One day Wendy became upset with Sam and complained to her mom, “Sam follows me everywhere, he does everything that I do and it is annoying. Can you make him stop?”

Wendy’s mother said, “Sam has loved you all his life, yes, he is younger and sometimes in your way, but he follows you because he wants to be just like you. You are an example to him.”

Wendy thought about that for a moment and realized that she loved Sam just as much as he loved her. She wanted to be an example to him. From then on Wendy let Sam follow her and do the same things she did, and she included him in most of the things she did when she could.

We all need someone to follow and who better to follow than the Savior, Jesus Christ. He loves us and we love him too. Jesus has been an example to all of us. Like Sam, we all need to try to be like Jesus by following his counsel.
