

Jesus of Nazareth Performs Miracles

A Man With Palsy

A local resident of Capernaum lay sick with palsy heard of a man named Jesus who could heal the sick. The man's friends found where Jesus was staying and brought the sick friend to him. Because of the crowds around the house, they took him up to the roof and lowered the sick man through the rood and into the room where Jesus was.

Jesus said, "Son, thy sins be forgiven thee...Arise and take thy bed, and go thy way to thy house." Immediately he took his bed and went home.

Mark 2:1-12

Touching the Hem of His Garment

For twelve years a woman had a issue with blood. She heard that Jesus was coming through the town and sought him also. "If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole." She claimed. As she did her blood was dried up and she felt she was cured of the plague.

Jesus inquired who had touched him, and seeing her he said, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague." Mark 5:25-34

"The Lord does not always heal the sick, nor save those in hazardous zones. He does not always relieve suffering and distress, for even these seemingly undesirable conditions may be part of a purposeful plan" President Spencer W. Kimball (Tragedy or Destiny, p. 5).

The Dying Daughter

Hearing about the miraculous healings Jesus preformed, Jairus sought him and lay at his feet and begged him to come and heal his dying daughter. She being the age of twelve. The rulers thought she was dead, but Jesus went to Jairus' home.

Jesus said, "Damsel, I say unto thee, arise."

She arose.

Mark 5:21-24, 35-43

Galilee News

33 AD

Jesus of Nazareth Performs Miracles

A Man With Palsy

A local resident of Capernaum lay sick with palsy heard of a man named Jesus who could heal the sick. The man's friends found where Jesus was staying and brought the sick friend to him. Because of the crowds around the house, they took him up to the roof and lowered the sick man through the rood and into the room where Jesus was.

Jesus said, "Son, thy sins be forgiven thee...Arise and take thy bed, and go thy way to thy house." Immediately he took his bed and went home.

Mark 2:1-12

Touching the Hem of His Garment

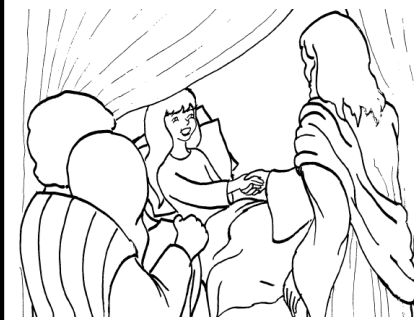

For twelve years a woman had a issue with blood. She heard that Jesus was coming through the town and sought him also. "If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole." She claimed. As she did her blood was dried up and she felt she was cured of the plague.

Jesus inquired who had touched him, and seeing her he said, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague." Mark 5:25-34

"The Lord does not always heal the sick, nor save those in hazardous zones. He does not always relieve suffering and distress, for even these seemingly undesirable conditions may be part of a purposeful plan" President Spencer W. Kimball (Tragedy or Destiny, p. 5).

The Dying Daughter

Hearing about the miraculous healings Jesus preformed, Jairus sought him and lay at his feet and begged him to come and heal his dying daughter. She being the age of twelve. The rulers thought she was dead, but Jesus went to Jairus' home.

Jesus said, "Damsel, I say unto thee, arise."

She arose.

Mark 5:21-24, 35-43

Galilee News

33 AD

Jesus of Nazareth Performs Miracles

A Man With Palsy

A local resident of Capernaum lay sick with palsy heard of a man named Jesus who could heal the sick. The man's friends found where Jesus was staying and brought the sick friend to him. Because of the crowds around the house, they took him up to the roof and lowered the sick man through the roof and into the room where Jesus was.

Jesus said, "Son, thy sins be forgiven thee...Arise and take thy bed, and go thy way to thy house." Immediately he took his bed and went home.

Mark 2:1-12

Touching the Hem of His Garment

For twelve years a woman had a issue with blood. She heard that Jesus was coming through the town and sought him also. "If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole." She claimed. As she did her blood was dried up and she felt she was cured of the plague.

Jesus inquired who had touched him, then seeing her he said, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague." Mark 5:25-34

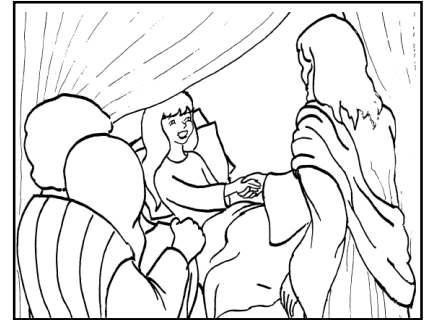

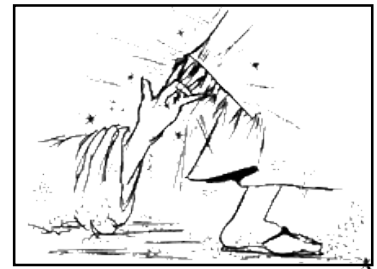

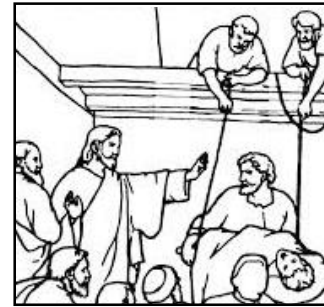

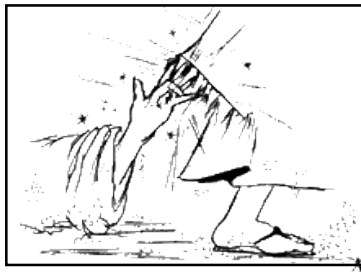

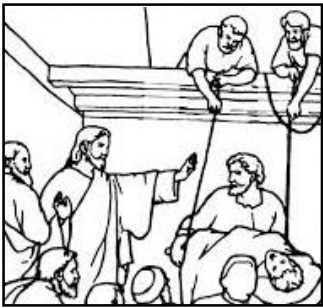

"The Lord does not always heal the sick, nor save those in hazardous zones. He does not always relieve suffering and distress, for even these seemingly undesirable conditions may be part of a purposeful plan" President Spencer W. Kimball (Tragedy or Destiny, p. 5).

The Dying Daughter

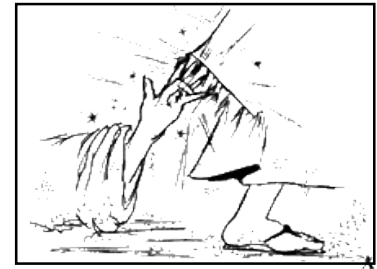

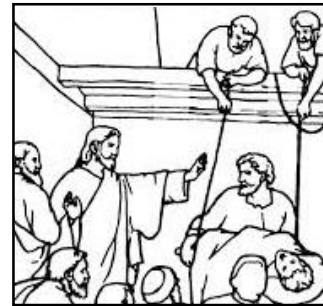

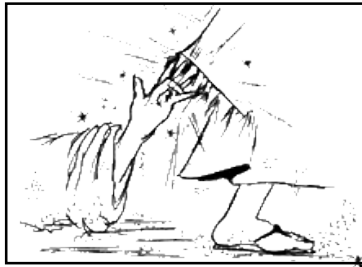

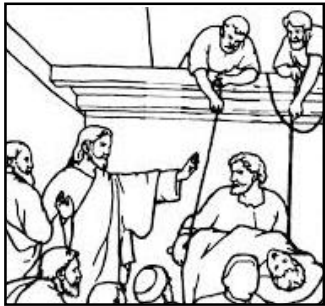

Hearing about the miraculous healings Jesus preformed, Jairus sought him and lay at his feet and begged him to come and heal his dying daughter, she being the age of twelve. The rulers thought she was dead, but Jesus went to Jairus' home and blessed her. Jesus said, "Damsel, I say unto thee, arise."

She arose.

Mark 5:21-24, 35-43

Copy, cut and place on News page set of 4

Instructions:

Page 1: Sample

Page 2: Handout—copy on off colored paper that looks like newsprint

Page 3: Copy and paste pictures on the stories from page 4

Optional: Draw your own picture for the stories

Page 4: Set of 4—copy cut and paste on News page 3