Paul's Journey To Rome

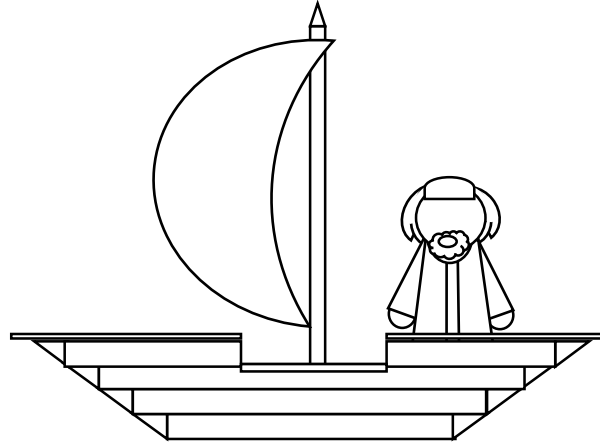

Acts 27-28

Paul set sail for Rome to be tried by Caesar

He traveled with 276 prisoners and sailors

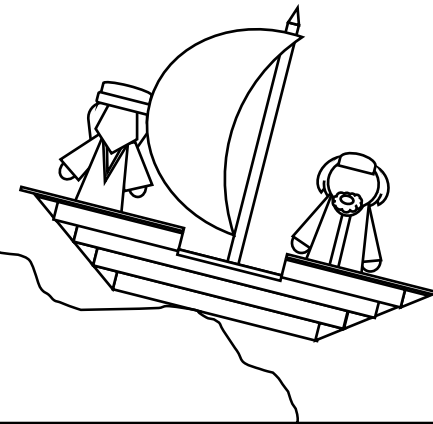

Paul foresaw trouble during the voyage

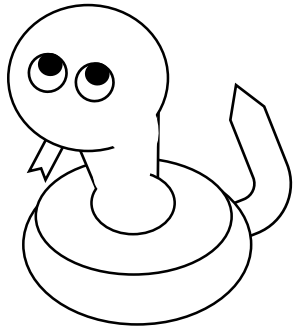

Julius, a centurion refused to listen to Paul's advice

The ship is wrecked off the Island of Melita,

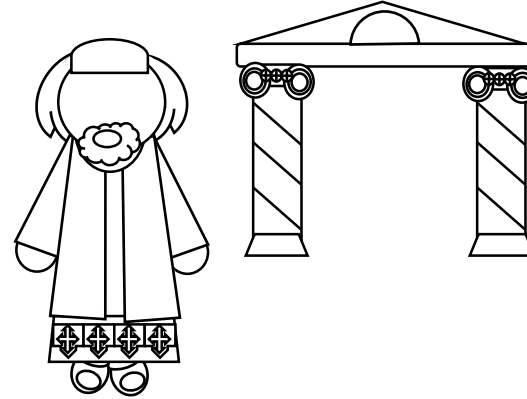

Paul survived a snake bit

Paul reassured passengers that all would be saved and healed the people on the island

After 3 months on the island Paul sailed to Syracuse, Rhegium, Puteoli, the arrived in Rome

This makes 2 booklets:

Take two pieces of different colored paper

Cut lengthwise in half

Put together and separate (about 1/2 inch between colors) alternating colors—see sample page

Staple edges

Copy, cut, and color story

Paste on story with Title on the front page
