

The Telestial World

Doctrine and Covenants 76:81-119

Now this is the state of the souls of the wicked, yea, in darkness, and a state of awful, fearful looking for the fiery indignation of the wrath of God upon them; thus they remain in this state, as well as the righteous in paradise, until the time of their resurrection.

Alma 40:14

Telestial World

Recap

Those who do not accept the gospel of Christ

Those who deny the Holy Spirit

Those who are thrust down to hell

Those who are redeemed from the devil

“These are they who receive not of his fulness in the eternal world, but of the Holy Spirit through the ministration of the terrestrial;”
D&C 76:86

Those who inherit the telestial kingdom must suffer in hell before they are redeemed by the Savior

Scenario

"My minister told us that after we die, we are going to either heaven or hell. I do not feel like I am good enough to go to heaven right now, but I also do not feel like I am so bad that I should go to hell.

What does your religion teach about heaven and hell?"

Some people will inherit the celestial kingdom because they have refused to receive great blessings offered to them.

What are the blessings they have refused?

They willfully reject the testimony of Jesus and the gospel. Because they reject the Savior and His gospel, they refuse the opportunity to repent of their sins and be cleansed through the Atonement.

Telestial VS Sons of Perdition

Those who do not commit the “unpardonable sin” of denying the Holy Spirit

“That part of the spirit world inhabited by wicked spirits who are awaiting the eventual day of their resurrection is called hell.

Those who commit the “unpardonable sin” of denying the Holy Spirit

Those who will pass through hell

Between their death and resurrection, these souls of the wicked are cast out into outer darkness, into the gloomy depression of sheol, into the hades of waiting wicked spirits, into hell.

There they suffer the torments of the damned; there they welter in the vengeance of eternal fire; there is found weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth; there the fiery indignation of the wrath of God is poured out upon the wicked.

Elder Bruce R. McConkie

The Celestial Glory

Surpass All Understanding

All who receive the telestial kingdom will have paid a price for this glory. The fact that after they pay this price they inherit a telestial glory is evidence of the Father's love and mercy.

Understanding “ cannot be conceived of by human mind, except as revealed.

We receive impressions through our senses.

We analyze these impression, classify them, and form deductions from them, and thus we obtain some knowledge of things both seen and unseen;

but we cannot gain any knowledge of the glories beyond any such process. It must be revealed. Revelation is also a source of knowledge.”

Smith and Sjodahl

Suffering

This suffering will be a means of cleansing, or purifying, and through it the wicked shall be brought to a condition whereby they may, through the redemption of Jesus Christ, obtain immortality.

Their spirits and bodies shall be again united, and they shall dwell in the telestial kingdom. But this resurrection will not come until the end of the world”

The wicked will suffer for their sins until Jesus Christ completes His work and delivers up the kingdom of God on earth to His Father. Christ will then be crowned with glory

No Man Knows Except God

Those who are redeemed
from the devil

The Glory of the Kingdoms

And thus we saw the glory of the celestial, which excels in all things—where God, even the Father, reigns upon his throne forever and ever;

Those who
are
redeemed
from the
devil

The kingdom of glory we inherit will
be determined by
our actions in this life and the desires
of our hearts

And thus we saw the glory of the terrestrial which excels in all things the glory of the celestial, even in glory, and in power, and in might, and in dominion.

Last of all, these all are they who will not be gathered with the saints, to be caught up unto the church of the Firstborn, and received into the cloud.

Judgment of the Telestial Beings

Judged according to their works

There are, various degrees of glory in the telestial sphere, and each individual will, in the judgment, receive the “dominion” in the “mansions” of God for which he has, by his works proved himself fit.

The glory of the celestial kingdom surpasses the glory of the terrestrial and telestial kingdoms.

Can I Hop From World to World?

Telestial Beings can only be administered by Celestial Beings and Terrestrial Beings and the Holy Ghost

They cannot visit any other worlds

Terrestrial Beings can be administered by Celestial Beings and Jesus Christ

They can, only by assignment, visit the Telestial World

Celestial Beings are in the Presence of Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ

They can administer to the Terrestrial and Telestial World as appointed to do so

How Can We Receive the Mysteries

The mysteries and knowledge can only be seen, heard, or felt through the power of the Holy Spirit

Heavenly Father grants us the privilege of knowledge and understanding

It is up to us as to what to do with this knowledge

Sources:

Video:

Three Degrees of Glory (2:29)

Bruce R. McConkie (Mormon Doctrine, pp. 349–50.)

Hyrum M. Smith and Janne M. Sjodahl Doctrine and Covenants Commentary pg. 468

Those Who Inherit the Telestial Glory Will Pass through Hell

Elder Bruce R. McConkie continues:

"Hell will have an end. Viewing future events, John saw that 'death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.' (Rev. 20:13.) Jacob taught that this escape from death and hell meant the bringing of the body out of the grave and the spirit out of hell. 'And this death of which I have spoken, which is the spiritual death,' he said, 'shall deliver up its dead; which spiritual death is hell; wherefore, death and hell must deliver up their dead, and hell must deliver up its captive spirits, and the grave must deliver up its captive bodies, and the bodies and the spirits of men will be restored one to the other.' (2 Ne. 9:10–12.) It was in keeping with this principle for David to receive the promise: 'Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell.' (Psalms 16:10; Acts 2:27.)

"After their resurrection, the great majority of those who have suffered in hell will pass into the telestial kingdom; the balance, cursed as sons of perdition, will be consigned to partake of endless wo with the devil and his angels. ...
"Who will go to hell? This query is abundantly answered in the scriptures. Since those going to a telestial kingdom travel to their destination through the depths of hell and as a result of obedience to telestial law, it follows that all those who live a telestial law will go to hell."
(Mormon Doctrine, pp. 349–50.)

The difference between being saved in the celestial kingdom and inheriting other kingdoms of glory:

"There is quite a difference between being saved in some kingdom, where there is some glory, some happiness, and being saved in the kingdom where our Father resides. ...
"Our Father who dwells in yonder heavens, and his Son Jesus Christ, inhabit the highest degree of glory in eternity. They are possessed of all the fulness of glory. They have a fulness of happiness, a fulness of power, a fulness of intelligence, light and truth, and they bear rule over all other kingdoms of inferior glory, of inferior happiness, and of inferior power. ... The gospel is intended to exalt the children of men to that same degree of glory, where our Father and where his Son resides" Elder Orson Pratt (Deseret News, Nov. 10, 1880, 642).

President Brigham Young explained how some people in his day responded to the truth that most of the wicked would eventually be redeemed and not suffer in hell forever:

"When God revealed to Joseph Smith and Sidney Rigdon that there was a place prepared for all, according to the light they had received and their rejection of evil and practice of good, it was a great trial to many, and some apostatized because God was not going to send to everlasting punishment heathens and infants, but had a place of salvation, in due time, for all, and would bless the honest and virtuous and truthful, whether they ever belonged to any church or not. It was a new doctrine to this generation, and many stumbled at it" (Teachings of Presidents of the Church: Brigham Young[1997], 292).

Elder Orson Pratt of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles taught of the difference between being saved in the celestial kingdom and inheriting other kingdoms of glory:

"There is quite a difference between being saved in some kingdom, where there is some glory, some happiness, and being saved in the kingdom where our Father resides. ...
"Our Father who dwells in yonder heavens, and his Son Jesus Christ, inhabit the highest degree of glory in eternity. They are possessed of all the fulness of glory. They have a fulness of happiness, a fulness of power, a fulness of intelligence, light and truth, and they bear rule over all other kingdoms of inferior glory, of inferior happiness, and of inferior power. ... The gospel is intended to exalt the children of men to that same degree of glory, where our Father and where his Son resides" (Deseret News, Nov. 10, 1880, 642).