

Israel Must Pass Through The Land

Numbers 20-21

*And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:
That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.
John 3:14-15*

While preparing a talk for sacrament meeting, you receive impressions about what you should say. After you give the talk, a member of your ward approaches you and says, “Thank you so much for what you said today. You are an amazing speaker, and your words were exactly what I needed to hear. I am so grateful for you.”

A friend who accepted the gospel because of your example says, “You changed my life. Because of you, I am happy and have direction and peace in my life.”

How Do You Respond to Praise?

The Wilderness of Zin

The children of Israel lived as a desert people in the area around Kadesh-barnea, until forty years from the time of their departure from Egypt had passed.

Only 3 events are recorded during this time:

1. The stoning of the Sabbath breaker
2. The leading by Korah, a Levite and priest officiating at the tabernacle, of a rebellion against Moses
3. The miracle of the budding of Aaron's rod

Near Kadesh

“The whole region is inhospitable and uninviting.”

Miriam Died

Wadi Zin. Photo by Ferrell Jenkins

Israelites once again rebelled against Moses and Aaron and complained that there was no water

Chode—past tense of Chide— Scold, berate, reprimand, rebuke, give someone a piece of one’s mind

Take The Rod

Aaron's rod is kept in the Ark of the Covenant

A water crisis arose and was resolved by the miracle of striking a rock, called Meribah, Moses “smote the rock twice” and water gushed forth.

Moses and Aaron did not glorify the Lord for this blessing and consequently were denied the privilege of entering the Promised Land.

And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

The King's Highway

Taking the high way would have been the easiest route for the Israelites.

“The ‘king’s way’ is the public high road, which was probably made at the cost of the state, and kept up for the king and his armies to travel upon, and is synonymous with the ‘sultan-road’ (Derb es Sultan) or ‘emperor road,’ as the open, broad, old military roads are still called in the East” (2)

King's Highway today

The highway ran along the highlands of present-day Jordan from the Red Sea up into Syria. On the east it paralleled the Dead Sea and the River Jordan.

Messengers to Edom

They were travel from Kadesh to the land of Canaan on the east side of the Dead Sea through several well populated areas.

The Edomites lived in a mountainous area also called Mount Seir

They would be passing in areas that were occupied with distant relatives

Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's high way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.

Response of Edom

They refused the passage to the Israelites and he sent an army to ensure that they did not pass through.

This new generation of Israelites left Kadesh and transported themselves to a place on the border of Edom that they called Mount Hor

Aaron Confers Priesthood to Son

This new generation of Israelites left Kadesh and transported themselves to a place on the border of Edom that they called Mount Hor

Aaron's Tomb

Stripped of His Garments=turning the office over to Aaron's son

Upon this mount, Eleazar, the son of Aaron, was given the presidency of the Levitical Priesthood in his father's stead; and here Aaron died. The people mourned for 30 days.

King Arad Captures Some Israelites

The Canaanite attack:

A raiding party swept down out of the southern monarchy of King Arad and captured an important segment of the people of Israel.

They were not rescued at this time inasmuch as it would have brought Israel into a direct engagement with the powerful Canaanites at the wrong time and place.

Brass Serpent

“Fiery serpents” afflicted them and caused the death of many.

The Jaradites: “And there came forth poisonous serpents also upon the face of the land, and did poison many people...” (Ether 9:31-33)

The Lord sent these upon the children of Israel to “straiten them,” and he prepared a way that those who were bitten might be healed by looking at the serpent of brass that Moses raised up before them, which was a symbol of the Redeemer being lifted upon the cross. (3)

Symbol of Christ

Healer of Nations:

“...and behold a type was raised up in the wilderness...” (Alma 33:19)

Look To Be Healed

O my brethren, if ye could be healed by merely casting about your eyes that ye might be healed, would ye not behold quickly, or would ye rather harden your hearts in unbelief, and be slothful, that ye would not cast about your eyes, that ye might perish?

Alma 33:21

And as many as should look upon that serpent should live, even so as many as should look upon the Son of God with faith, having a contrite spirit, might live, even unto that life which is eternal. Helaman 8:15

“Jesus Christ has prescribed a very clear method for us to repent and find healing in our lives.

The cure for most mistakes can be found by seeking forgiveness through personal prayer.

However, there are certain spiritual illnesses, particularly those dealing with violations of the moral law, which absolutely require the assistance and treatment of a qualified spiritual physician. ...

“If you ... wish to return to full spiritual health, see your bishop. He holds the keys and can help you along the pathway of repentance”

The Journey Continued...

The children of Israel were healed by looking to Christ, they defeated the Amorites and the people of Bashan who fought against them.

The locales mentioned as stopping places are not definitely known today.

Top of Pisgah (looked toward Jeshimon)

Bamoth

Nahaliel

Mattanah

Beer (well dug by princes)

Side of Arnon(border of Moab)

Valley of Zared

Ijeabarim (before Moab)

Obath

Mt. Hor

“Spring Up, Oh Well; Sing Ye Unto It”

The princes (leaders of the tribes) dug a well with their staves

*Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.
Isaiah 12:3*

But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. John 4:14

As water is essential to sustain physical life, the Savior and his teachings (living water) are essential for eternal life. (3)

Sihon

King of the Amorites

And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border:

Amorites is used in the Bible to refer to certain highland mountaineers who inhabited the land of Canaan, described in Genesis 10:16 as descendants of Canaan, son of Ham.

Nave's Topical Bible to refer to the Amorites as "giants." Wikipedia

“The first battle was fought at Jahaz, and then the war spread from the River Arnon to every section where Sihon had built his strongholds...”

Sihon was defiant. He would not negotiate...and mobilized his armies and came upon the children of Israel.

“...now Israel brought the war to them. As the Israelites overran their walls and pulled down their gates they brought about their complete destruction. Nothing came out alive except the cattle which were taken as spoil. They also stripped each city of the wealth which Sihon’s people had stolen from those who had previously inhabited these towns and cities.” (5)

Og

Another Amorite King; King of Bashan

Battle at Edrei

Og ruled everything west of Jordan from the River Jabbok to Mount Hermon. This territory was called “the land of giants” and King Og is referred to by Moses as the only king left of the “remnant of giants.”

“Og was killed and the whole city devastated. Then the armies of Israel swept through the land of Bashan cleansing it as they went.”

"bedstead" (translated in some texts as "sarcophagus") of iron is "nine cubits in length and four cubits in width", which is 13.5 ft by 6 ft according to the standard cubit of a man.

Og may have been around 9 feet 13 inches tall. Wikipedia

And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon; Deuteronomy 3:8

The children of Israel were healed by looking to Christ, therefore they defeated the Amorites and the people of Bashan who fought against them.

Sources:

Suggested Hymn: #25 Now We'll Sing With One Accord

1. Edward J. Brandt Journeys in the Events of the Life of Moses Oct. 1975 Ensign
2. (Keil and Delitzsch, Commentary, 1:3:134).
3. Bible Dictionary
4. Elder Boyd K. Packer ("The Key to Spiritual Protection," Ensign or Liahona, Nov. 2013, 28).
5. W. Cleon Skousen The Third Thousand Years p. 424

The Book of Numbers

Bible Dictionary

Chapters 1-12	Chapters 13-20	Chapter 21-36
Old Generation Organization and Preparation to leave Mt. Sinai	Transition to Kadesh-barnea—drawing back in unbelief—brings God’s discipline Wilderness	New Generation Move to Plains of Moab—east of Promised Land Reorganization of Israel Regulations (offerings and Vows) Conquest and Division of Israel

Numbers 20	Numbers 21
En Route to Moab	The Healing and the Strength
Death of Miriam Moses smites a rock at Meribah and brings forth water The king of Edom refuses to let Israel pass peacefully through his land Aaron dies, and Eleazar becomes the high priest	Victory over Canaanites. Israelites are plagued with fiery serpents Moses lifts up a serpent of brass to save those who look thereon Israel defeats the Amorites, destroys the people of Bashan, and occupies their lands

WHO-DOMITES? Who Are The Edomites Today? Simply put they are the descendants of Esau, the twin brother of the infamous Jacob of the Old Testament. In Genesis 32:28 God changes Jacobs name to Israel and his twelve sons and their descendants became the nation of Israel. Likewise the descendants of Esau formed the nation of Edom from which comes the term Edomites. (Genesis 36:1, 9)

The Edomites were spawned in Edom, which is today Southern Jordan. Although a remnant of Edomites still reside in Southern Jordan, most Edomites migrated in several waves centuries ago into Israel proper and made Hebron their central city. Hebron still exists today in the West Bank and is predominately inhabited by the Palestinians.

Around the time of “Alexander the Great”, (born 356 BC), the Edomites became known in the Greek language as the Idumeans. Presently Edomite descent can be traced into the Palestinian ethnicity as follows: (Edomites-Idumeans-Palestinians). Although the Palestinians are made up of a mish mash of ethnicities, many of them are Esau’s Edomite descendants.

Bill Salus Two End Times Judgments upon Edom blog

Stripped of his garments:

This was, in effect, depriving him of his office; and putting the clothes on his son Eleazar implied a transfer of that office to him. A transfer of office, from this circumstance of putting the clothes of the late possessor on the person intended to succeed him, was called investing or investment, (clothing;) as removing a person from an office was termed divesting or unclothing.”(Clarke, Bible Commentary, 1:682.)

The same custom continues to this day in some institutions. When an officer is installed or removed from office, ceremonial clothing is either put on or taken off, symbolizing a transfer of authority. When one departs in dishonor, he is literally stripped of his gown or robes. In the military, the cutting off of one’s epaulets or insignia of rank is the same thing.

Aaron, however, was not retiring in dishonor or disgrace. His death was imminent (see v. 28), and it was time for new and younger leadership.

Mistakes:

“There have been times when members or leaders in the Church have simply made mistakes. There may have been things said or done that were not in harmony with our values, principles, or doctrine.

“I suppose the Church would be perfect only if it were run by perfect beings. God is perfect, and His doctrine is pure. But He works through us—His imperfect children—and imperfect people make mistakes. ...

“It is unfortunate that some have stumbled because of mistakes made by men. But in spite of this, the eternal truth of the restored gospel found in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is not tarnished, diminished, or destroyed” President Dieter F. Uchtdorf (“Come, Join with Us,” Ensign or Liahona, Nov. 2013, 22).

Even though the Church is led by imperfect people who can make mistakes, the Lord’s prophet will never lead us astray. President Wilford Woodruff explained:

“The Lord will never permit me or any other man who stands as President of this Church to lead you astray. It is not in the program. It is not in the mind of God” (Official Declaration 1, “Excerpts from Three Addresses by President Wilford Woodruff Regarding the Manifesto”).

The Amorite king, Og, was described as the last "of the remnant of the Rephaim" (Deu. 3:11). The terms Amorite and Canaanite seem to be used more or less interchangeably, Canaan being more general and Amorite a specific component among the Canaanites who inhabited the land.

The Biblical Amorites seem to have originally occupied the region stretching from the heights west of the Dead Sea (Gen. 14:7) to Hebron (13:8; Deut. 3:8; 4:46–48), embracing "all Gilead and all Bashan" (Deut. 3:10), with the Jordan valley on the east of the river (4:49), the land of the "two kings of the Amorites," Sihon and Og (Deut. 31:4; Jo. 2:10; 9:10). Both Sihon and Og were independent kings. These Amorites seem to have been linked to the Jerusalem region, and the Jebusites may have been a subgroup of them (Ezek. 16:3). The southern slopes of the mountains of Judea are called the "mount of the Amorites" (Deut. 1:7, 19, 20).

Five kings of the Amorites were first defeated with great slaughter by Joshua (10:10). Then more Amorite kings were defeated at the waters of Merom by Joshua (Josh. 11:8). It is mentioned that in the days of Samuel, there was peace between them and the Israelites (1 Sam. 7:14). The Gibeonites were said to be their descendants, being an offshoot of the Amorites who made a covenant with the Hebrews; when Saul later broke that vow and killed some of the Gibeonites, God sent a famine to Israel.Wikipedia