

What Does a Bishop Do?

A bishop is called by inspiration of the Lord and ordained one who has the Priesthood authority.

He watches over and nurtures the ward members in the ward.

He conducts tithing settlement and receives other contributions from Church members.

He administers the Church welfare program in the ward or branch.

He keeps records of all Church business and oversees the use and security of Church buildings and facilities.

D&C 72

What Does a Bishop Do?

A bishop is called by inspiration of the Lord and ordained one who has the Priesthood authority.

He watches over and nurtures the ward members in the ward.

He conducts tithing settlement and receives other contributions from Church members.

He administers the Church welfare program in the ward or branch.

He keeps records of all Church business and oversees the use and security of Church buildings and facilities.

What Does a Bishop Do?

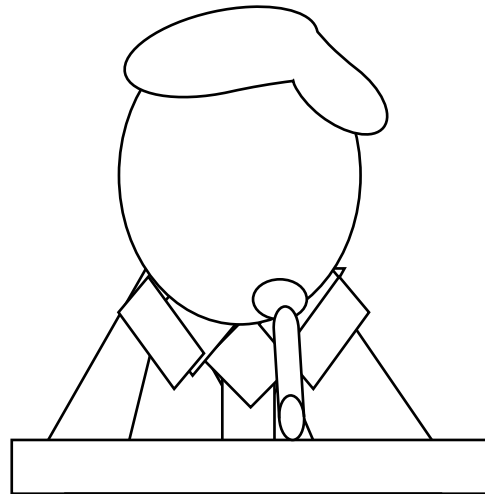

What Does a Bishop Do?

He watches over and nurtures the ward members in the ward.

A bishop is called by inspiration of the Lord and ordained one who has the Priesthood authority.

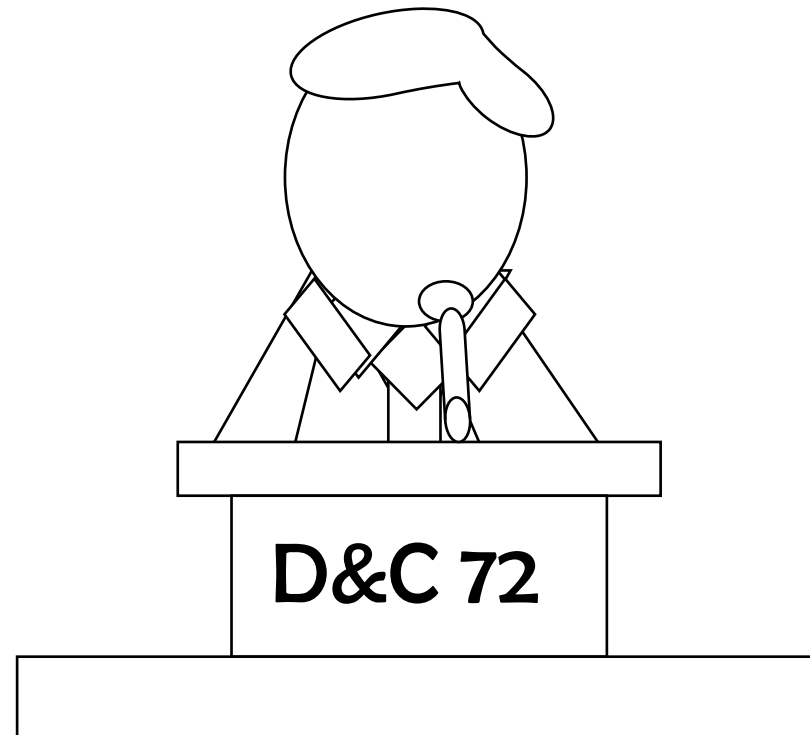

He conducts tithing settlement and receives other contributions from Church members.

He administers the Church welfare program in the ward or branch.

He keeps records of all Church business and oversees the use and security of Church buildings and facilities.

What Does a Bishop Do?

A bishop is called by inspiration of the Lord and ordained one who has the Priesthood authority.

He watches over and nurtures the ward members in the ward.

He administers the Church welfare program in the ward or branch.

He conducts tithing settlement and receives other contributions from Church members.

He keeps records of all Church business and oversees the use and security of Church buildings and facilities.

A bishop is called by inspiration of the Lord and ordained one who has the Priesthood authority.

He watches over and nurtures the ward members in the ward.

He administers the Church welfare program in the ward or branch.

He conducts tithing settlement and receives other contributions from Church members.

He keeps records of all Church business and oversees the use and security of Church buildings and facilities.

A bishop is called by inspiration of the Lord and ordained one who has the Priesthood authority.

He watches over and nurtures the ward members in the ward.

He administers the Church welfare program in the ward or branch.

He conducts tithing settlement and receives other contributions from Church members.

He keeps records of all Church business and oversees the use and security of Church buildings and facilities.

Bishops and branch presidents manage the temporal and spiritual affairs of the Church in their wards and branches

Sources

Lesson 8

Duties of the Bishop and the Branch President

<https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/study/manual/duties-and-blessings-of-the-priesthood-basic-manual-for-priesthood-holders-part-a/history-and-organization-of-the-priesthood/lesson-8-duties-of-the-bishop-and-the-branch-president?lang=eng>

The first Bishops of the Church

<https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/study/friend/1985/05/the-first-bishops-of-the-church?lang=eng>