

1 Samuel 16:7

“the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.”

Sons of Jesse

Eliab

Abinadab

Shammah

Nethaneel

Raddai

Ozem

David

Includes circle fun coloring page

Samuel Anoints a King

1 Samuel 16:7

“the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.”

Sons of Jesse

Eliab

Abinadab

Shammah

Nethaneel

Raddai

Ozem

David

Samuel Anoints a King

1 Samuel 16:7

“the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.”

Sons of Jesse

Eliab

Abinadab

Shammah

Nethaneel

Raddai

Ozem

David

Samuel Anoints a King

Samuel

My mother, Hannah, was barren and prayed at the temple for a son, vowing to give him to the Lord. God answered her prayers; she gave birth to me. While I was still young, she brought me to the temple to serve Him. There the priest Eli cared for and taught me.

As a child, I heard a voice calling my name one night. Three times I went to Eli, but he had not called me. He said it was the Lord calling me. I followed Eli's counsel when I heard my name the fourth time and answered, "Speak; for thy servant heareth." The Lord spoke to me, and as I grew older, He was with me. He called me to be His prophet.

When I grew old, I appointed my sons as judges over Israel. My sons were unrighteous, so the elders of Israel asked for a king. I warned the people of the dangers of having a king, but they persisted in their pleas. The Lord commanded that I should "hearken unto their voice."

The Lord sent me Saul—"a choice young man"—and I anointed him as "captain over [the] people Israel." He became their king. However, when the Lord commanded Saul to destroy the Amalekites and all they had, he disobeyed. He kept the Amalekites' animals and offered them as sacrifices. I taught Saul that "to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams."

Due to Saul's disobedience, the Lord commanded me to anoint a new king from among the sons of Jesse. Jesse presented his seven oldest sons to me, but the Lord had not chosen them.⁸ The Lord revealed to me that the youngest son, David, should be the king. By countenance or stature, David's older brothers may have looked more like future kings, but the Lord had chosen this young shepherd boy to lead His people. From this experience I learned that "the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart."

<https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/study/ensign/2014/06/old-testament-prophets-samuel?lang=eng>

Idea:

Page 2: handout, draw a line from Samuel to the person the Lord had chosen to be king by reading 1 Samuel 16:1-13.

Page 3: handout to color. Draw a line from Samuel to the person the Lord chose to be king by reading 1 Samuel 16:1-13

Page 4: Story <https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/study/ensign/2014/06/old-testament-prophets-samuel?lang=eng>

Page 6-13 Popsicle Stick Figures

Page 14: Circle Fun to color

Eliab
1st Son of Jesse
1 Samuel 17:13

Abinadab
2nd son of Jess
1 Samuel 17:3

Shammah
3rd Son of Jesse
1 Samuel 17:13

Nethaneel
4th Son of Jesse
1 Chronicles 2:14

Raddai
5th son of Jesse
1 Chronicles 2:15

Ozem
6th son of Jesse
1 Chronicles 2:15

David

7th Son of Jesse
1 Chronicles 2:15

King David

Samuel

Jesse

Father of David

Ruth 4

1 Chronicles

1 Samuel 17:58

Eliab
1st Son of Jesse
1 Samuel 17:13

Abinadab
2nd son of Jess
1 Samuel 17:3

Shammah
3rd Son of Jesse
1 Samuel 17:13

Nethaneel
4th Son of Jesse
1 Chronicles 2:14

Raddai
5th son of Jesse
1 Chronicles 2:15

Ozem

6th son of Jesse
1 Chronicles 2:15

David

7th Son of Jesse
1 Chronicles 2:15

King David

Samuel

Jesse

Father of David

Ruth 4

1 Chronicles

1 Samuel 17:58

Samuel anoints
a King