Ezekiel 33:21-33

People of Judah

Those left behind in Judah, far from repenting, were busy annexing other people's property. And in Babylonia the exiles who seemed to lap up Ezekiel's words came simply for entertainment. They neither believed them nor acted on them: a depressing state of affairs after all that had happened!" – Alexander and Alexander (6)

Jerusalem is Smitten

"In the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month" Prophet Ezekiel responds, "the city is smitten." Ezekiel hears of the news that Jerusalem has been destroyed, coming from some unknown person who had escaped Jerusalem.

The land was given to the Amorites and his posterity and the people had forgotten the ways of Jehovah.

Ezekiel was not surprised with the news because of the wickedness that Judah had been involved with.

Ezekiel Preaches to those in Babylonia

"Thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence."

Ezekiel asks all to come and hear the word of the Lord. To not be afraid, to repent and renew the covenants that the people made with Jehovah.
