Jonah was a prophet. The Lord told him to warn the people in Nineveh that their city would be destroyed if they did not repent. Jonah 1:1–2

But the people of Nineveh were enemies to the Israelites. Jonah did not want to preach to them. So he got on a ship to sail far away from Nineveh. Jonah 1:3

While Jonah was on the ship, a big storm came. The men on the ship were afraid for their lives. They asked Jonah to pray to the Lord to save them. Jonah 1:4–6

Jonah knew the Lord sent the storm because he was running away from what the Lord asked him to do. Jonah wanted to save the people on the ship. He said if they threw him into the sea, the storm would stop. The men did not want to throw Jonah overboard. They tried to row the ship to land, but the storm was too great. Finally, they threw Jonah into the sea. Jonah 1:12-15

The storm stopped. But then Jonah was swallowed by a large fish. Jonah 1:15-17

Jonah was inside the belly of the fish for three days and three nights. During that time, Jonah prayed and repented. He wanted to do what was right and listen to the Lord. The Lord heard Jonah's prayers and made the fish spit Jonah out onto dry land.

Jonah 1:17; 2:1–10

The Lord again told Jonah to preach to the people of Nineveh. This time Jonah obeyed. He went to Nineveh and told the people to repent or the Lord would destroy their city. The king and his people repented. The Lord forgave them and did not destroy Nineveh.

But Jonah was disappointed that the people had not been destroyed. He didn't think they deserved to be forgiven.

To teach Jonah a lesson, the Lord grew a plant to shade Jonah from the sun. Then the plant died, and Jonah felt bad for the plant.

The Lord was teaching Jonah a lesson about His children. Jonah learned that he should be sad when people do not repent and that he should be happy when they do. Jonah 3-4

See instructions for making the booklet
Copy and cut one for each child. You may have to fold for them. Use the dotted red line to cut.

How to make the booklet

How to Make a Six-Page Book With One Sheet of Paper!

1. One sheet of white paper.
12" X 18" is a good size to use.

2. Fold in half lengthwise. Also known as a "Hotdog Fold".

3. Fold in half again.

4. Fold in half again.

5. Now you have a very small folded sheet of paper. But it isn't a book yet.

6. Unfold everything. Now it is a big sheet of paper with lots of fold lines.

7. Fold in half in the middle- this time a "Hamburger Fold".
Make a mark with your pencil in the center of the folded sheet. Take your scissors and cut from the folded edge to the center dot. Stop cutting at the dot!

8. Unfold your sheet of paper. It should look like this with an open slit in the middle. Fold
it in half length-wise again. (Hotdog Fold.)

9. Push folded edges towards center allowing the slit to open up into a diamond shape.

10. Keep pushing edges together until diamond becomes a slit again,
perpendicular to folded edges.

11. Fold one edge toward slit and the opposite slit toward folded edge.

12. Be sure to go over the creases to make them sharp. Now you have a small six-page book!
