Adam

“I lived in the Garden of Eden. I was the first man on earth and Eve was the first woman on earth. Together we taught our children in the ways of the Lord.”

Enoch

“I was ordained by Adam. I was face to face with the Lord and was told to preach repentance to my people. My people became the city of Zion and we were taken to heaven.”

Noah

“I lived at a time of wickedness. I tried to teach the people to repent. The Lord asked me to build an ark and gather food and animals. The rains came and flooded the earth.”

Abraham

“I had a son named Isaac. He had a son named Jacob. Jacob, known as Israel, had 12 sons and they are of the tribes of Israel.”

Moses

“I lived during Old Testament times. The Lord told me to lead my people out of bondage. I went to Mount Sinai where the Lord spoke to me and gave the Ten Commandments.”

Samuel

“I was chosen a prophet when I was a boy. I heard my name called by the Lord. I was the last judge of Israel. I was told to find a king of Israel in place of King Saul, his name was David.”

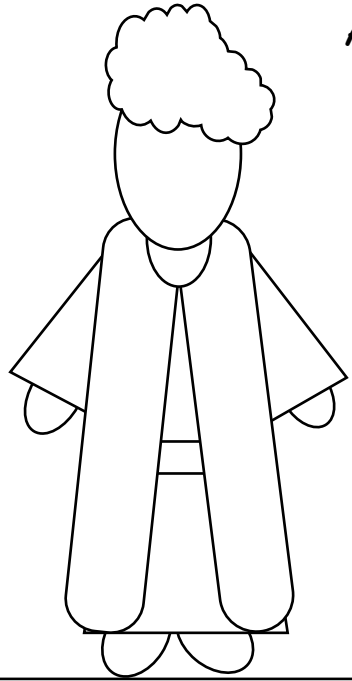

Daniel

“I was thrown into a lion’s den for praying. The Lord helped me so I would live. I saw in a vision the king’s dream and interpreted it for King of Babylon.”

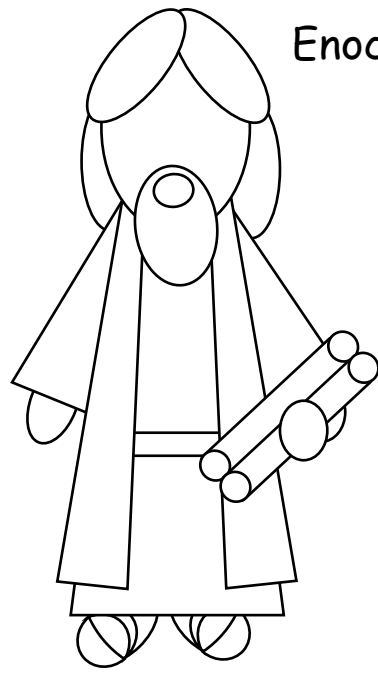

Jeremiah

“I was chosen to be a prophet before I was born. My life was hard but I knew the Lord would be with me. The people did not listen to the warnings of repentance and were taken captive. I was taken to Egypt and wrote prophecies.”
