

Parable of the Ten Virgins

Matthew 25:1-13

Then the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom

Five of them were wise

Five of them were foolish

They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them

But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps

And at Midnight There was a cry made:
Behold, the bridegroom cometh:
go ye out to meet him.

While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept

Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

But the wise answered, saying. Not so: lest there be not enough for us and you; but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves..

And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in and him to the marriage;
and the door was shut

Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us

But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.
